

Quick Reference to Guidelines & Requirements for Worship Services Attendees
June 5th, 2020

1. Instructions for Those Who Are Sick –

If you are feeling sick for whatever reason do not attend corporate worship. If you have been in contact with someone who has tested positive for COVID 19 do not attend until you have been cleared by a healthcare professional.

2. Personal Protection:

Wearing of a face mask or face covering is required at all times when in the building.

Maintaining a minimum of 6 feet of social distance is required between families while in the building.

3. Instructions for Entering the Building

A. The only entrance allowed into the building will be through the main entrance leading into the foyer. The maintain entrance doors will be unlocked five minutes before each scheduled worship time.

B. Please remain with your family and quickly find seating in the pews maintaining appropriate social distancing from other individuals and families. Families are required to sit together.

C. The only areas of the building open during worship will be our foyer, auditorium, and restrooms on the eastside of the foyer. Do not enter other parts of the building

D. It is required that no food or beverage may be brought into the building, except for those families who would like to bring their own bread & juice for communion purposes.

4. Exiting the Building

A. At the conclusion of service, you will be directed to exit the building by section.

B. Only the main entrance is to be used as an exit.

5. Partaking of Communion and Offering

A. Communion will not be physically passed out during the service.

B. As you enter the building into the foyer one member of each family should pick up enough communion kits for their family to use during the service.

C. Following communion, you may dispose of the communion material by using the small trash cans placed on the end of each pew.

D. Your eldership encourages online giving or by mailing your checks to the church office. There will be a clearly marked offering container available as you exit the auditorium into the foyer.